THE REFORM BARBER.

Strange Experience of an Old Gentleman in New York.

The fat old gentleman, whose wealth of corpulence was aided and abetted by a plurality of chins, entered the new establishment of the New York Barbers' Reform Association, threw himself into a chair, with customary nonchalance, and asked in oleaginous tones for a shave. Then he smiled affably at the sedate-looking barber who approached him, stared curiously at his apron, which was ornamented with strange devices resembling human tongues, to which padlocks were attached, and finally stretched himself out comfortably in his cushioned seat, with an expression of contentment which said plainly enough: "I am now ready to talk politics, theatricals, or foreign news with you. I am feeling more than usually happy. Speak, I beg of you."

The barber paid no heed to this. He lathered his patient, sharpened his razor, adjusted the bullet-shaped head before him. Then grate, grate went the razor over the hirsute surface.

The old gentleman turned uncomfortably in his chair. The unusual silence appalled him. What was this taciturn barber and the dozen others he saw around him equipped with similar aprons and equal taciturnity?

Grate, grate went the razor. The silence was rapidly becoming dolorous.

"What do you think of the French Canadian demonstration on the Champ de Mars, the other afternoon?" asked the old gentleman, timidly, at last. "Don't you consider that the action of Senator Trudel in condemning the Government was untimely?"

There was still silence. Grate, grate went the razor, which had been forced to pause for a moment. Then the barber uttered an unwilling "Yes," and continued his operations.

The old gentleman became crimson. A cold perspiration broke out upon him immediately after. He shuffled uneasily in his chair. "Keep quiet, or I shall cut you," said the barber. Silence again. More grate, grate.

Then the old gentleman made another effort. "Vigaux doesn't seem to have shown to great advantage in the Chicago billiard contest, does he? They say he is very weak in the balk-line game," he said.

"Yes," assented the imperturbable barber, while the other barbers tittered and looked complacently at their own well drilled, taciturn customers.

The old gentleman sighed. All this was so different to the good old fashioned verbosity of the barber's shop. Perhaps, however, he was aiming too high. He would try once more.

"I see that the Signal Service reported rain, followed by colder, fair weather for to-day," he remarked feebly. "I never believe much in that bureau myself. Do you?"

A pause. The barber saturated his towel with bay rum, applied it vigorously to the plural chin, and remarked, indifferently, "No."

The old gentleman became frantic. He sat up in his chair while the final strokes were given to his hair and moustache. He would make this barber speak. "My hair is coming out," he said, desperately.

"I wish I could buy some tonic to strengthen it. I don't care what I pay, for I should hate to be bald. Tell me what the matter is, and I will purchase anything you recommend."

The barber was still silent. Quickly he removed the towels from his patient's neck, and with equal tranquillity assisted him out of the chair. "We don't sell such rubbish," he said, scornfully, "and we don't talk twaddle to our customers. We're reformers. Good-morning. Next!"

A wholesale house in Chicago started a salesman out on the road, giving him $100 for traveling expenses. A week passed and nothing was heard from Mr. Traveler. Still another week passed, and still no word from Mr. Traveler. Finally the house wired him as follows: "Mr. Traveler—Nothing from you since you left. Are you still with us?" To which Mr. Traveler replied: "Yours this date received. Have made draft on you for $200. Am still with you."

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Next to giving us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health, but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain a satisfying proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct cause of 75 per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10c. Try it.

The Stomach Distills Acid.

These, if existent in a natural quantity and unattended by bile, play their part in the functions of digestion and assimilation. But the artificial acid resulting from the inability of the stomach to convert food received by it into sustenance, is the producer of flatulence and heartburn, which are the most harassing symptoms of dyspepsia. The best carminative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Far more effective is it than carbonate of soda, magnesia or other alkaline salts. These invariably weaken the stomach without producing permanent benefit. No man or woman chronically dyspeptic, and consequently nervous, can be in possession of the full measure of vigor allowed by nature. Therefore, invigorate and regulate the system, and by so doing protect it from malaria, rheumatism and other serious maladies.

Thousands of Dollars.

Are spent every year by the people of this State for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases, when we know that if they would only invest $1 in SANTA ABIE, the new California discovery for consumption and kindred lung complaints, they would in this pleasant remedy find relief. It is recommended by ministers, physicians and public speakers of the Golden State. Sold and guaranteed by Osburn & Shoemaker Reno, Nev., at $1 a bottle. Three for $2.50. The most stubborn case of catarrh will speedily succumb to CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE. Six months' treatment for $1. By mail $1.10.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, did so, and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands of others who have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Hamburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well. Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's."

Unnecessary Suffering.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body. It is difficult to cure for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. Hamburg Figs were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 5 cents. At all drug stores. J. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

Sudden Death.

Dr. Flint's Heart Remedy will prolong life by preventing those sudden deaths from heart disease which bring untold grief to families, often plunging them into poverty, because of the untimely death of the bread-winner. At drug stores, $1.50. Descriptive treatise with each bottle; or address J. J. Mack & Co., S. F.

The English Government is trying to secure another Coercion Act with which to "squeeze" Ireland a little more. And all this time the population in that unhappy Island is decreasing rapidly by emigration, as it has been doing since the great famine. The excess of births over deaths in Ireland is only 6-4, compared with 13-9 in Scotland, and 4-3 in England and Wales. The number of marriages in Ireland are fewer in proportion to population than in any other civilized country. The Island simply cannot support itself with its needed quantity of grain, but must buy of other countries. A purely agricultural country not able to raise sufficient food for itself! That is certainly an astonishing thought.

The City of Peking on her last trip from Hongkong brought 275,000 trade dollars, consigned to the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking corporation. The cause of this return is the passage of a law by the last Congress authorizing the redemption of trade dollars at par value for standard dollars. As the law only applies to coin not mutilated, and as the Chinese have disfigured most of the trade dollars sent to China, it is not probable that many more will be received here for redemption. During the past month over $3,000,000 worth have been redeemed, and it is expected as many more will be offered. They are melted and run into fine bars for coinage into silver standard dollars.

The startling announcement is made that a reward of $5,000 is offered by the Chinese residents of Honolulu for the head of His Majesty King Kalakaua, owing to the recent opium bribery question. A late arrival in San Francisco says that when he left Honolulu the walls were covered with printed posters to that effect. Captain Cousins, of the "Consejo," bears out the former statement in every particular with the exception of the amount, which he says is $10,000, instead of $5,000. Sea captains who have ever run down to Honolulu say that if the Chinese on the Islands want the King's head, there will be no hesitancy about taking it.

The foreign landlord is getting a firmer hold in our country every year. They do not even live among us, but draw their rents from American farmers, their tenants-at-will, in immense sums. The Duke of Sutherland, who is now in this country on a visit, owns 425,000 acres of land. He has a little patch of 1,350,000 acres in England. The Grange has already taken up this question of alien landlords. Our motto should be "not another acre of America's free soil for a foreigner who will not live among us, become a citizen, and share our dangers and our destiny."

It is the opinion of the Supreme Court of Illinois that if a railway company diverts the flow of surface water from its natural channel, and conducts it through a ditch it has made along its right of way, and empties it into a slough, at a point where it overflows the land of another, it may be liable for such damages as result from its own acts, but it will not be liable on account of any water that may be brought into such railway ditch by artificial drains of other parties, made without the sanction or approval of the company.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

State Cabinet Thieves.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.
The Mineral Trustees recently appointed by Governor Bartlett, after organizing to-day, visited the cabinet and found that many of the most valuable specimens are missing. The specimens in the cabinet originally cost the State $60,000, and it is believed the thefts will amount to thousands of dollars. The loss will be investigated.

A Horse Sale.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.
One hundred and two head of stock belonging to Haggin were sold yesterday, and brought $18,000. The highest price paid was $400. The horses were all raised on Haggin's ranches in Kern and Sacramento counties. Haggin expressed himself much pleased with the result of the sale.

A Fire at San Mateo.

SAN MATEO, Cal., April 7.
Library Hall building, one of the finest structures in this place, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The building, which was a two-story brick, was completed in January, 1885, at a cost of $20,000. Besides a reading hall the building was occupied by the Odd Fellows, Native Sons and the Golden West and the Ancient Order of United Workmen, all of whose property was lost. The Odd Fellows were insured. The insurance on the building was $6,000. The cause of the fire is unknown. Work will soon commence on a new hall.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Hopes of the "Eagle's" Safety.

SYDNEY, CAPE BRETON, April 7.
The following report has been received from St Johns: The steamer, Hector, has arrived here with 1,000 seals. She did not see anything of the Eagle. It was said that she had passed through a lot of wreckage, but this is not true, and the people in St. Johns are beginning to hope the Eagle may after all be safe. The Hector reports the Vanguard with 6,000 seals, the Neptune with 4,000, the Ranger with 6,000, and the Arctic and Esquimaux with 3,000 each.

The First Gun Fired.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., April 7.
News has reached here that the fishery cruiser, Vigilant, when sailing out of Beaver Harbor a few days ago, sighted an American fishing vessel within the three-mile limit and evidently after bait. The Vigilant gave chase and gained on the Yankee, who refused to heave to even when blank shot was fired. The chase continued, but the American vessel soon gained line and was safe. This is the first gun fired this season by the Canadian cruisers.

Probable Result of Earthquakes.

MONTE CARLO, April 7.
A heavy land-slide to-day of immense masses of rock and earth have nearly blocked the railway and carriage road. Trains from Cannes and Mentone, loaded with tourists, had marvelous escapes from destruction, getting over tracks just in time to avoid annihilation. The land-slide is undoubtedly the result of shocks which Promontory received during the earthquakes.

A Fishing Smack Sunk.

LONDON, April 7.
The Cunard steamer, Pavonia, which sailed from Queenstown yesterday for Boston, collided with and sunk a fishing smack off Cape Clear. Two of the occupants of the smack were drowned.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—The Northern Pacific express office and the Maguire Opera House in Missoula, Montana, were burned yesterday.
—A dispatch from London says that ex-Secretary Manning was unable to take any outdoor exercise yesterday, owing to the prevalence of easterly winds. His condition is not so satisfactory.
—Great Britain has demanded $1,000,000 of Hayti as a settlement in full of all demands. Failing its immediate payment, she wants Tortugas, an island which lies off the north coast of Hayti.

Selden Hetzel, Register of the Land Office at Sacramento, has been detected in misappropriating money deposited with him by land claimants. His defalcation will probably amount to thousands of dollars. Hetzel has been in office only since October last.
—Roscoe Conkling has consented to attend the banquet of the American Club, in Pittsburg on April 27th, General Grant's birthday, and it is probable he will make the occasion of his returning to politics and deliver a speech that will be in more than one respect notable.
—The Inter-State Commerce Commission yesterday decided to free the Southern Railway and Steamship Association from the operations of the long and short haul provision of the law for 90 days, during which time a further investigation of the effect of the competition of water routes will be made.

Nevada's Champion Rifle Shot.

The Carson Tribune of the 6th instant says: Yesterday afternoon, while practicing at the range, in company with Messrs. Holbrook and Saffell, George Thaxter made seven "tens" in ten consecutive shots on the Hinman or rug target, as follows:
Creedmoor.....5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5
Ring.....10 8 10 10 10 8 10 10 10 10
Considering the fact that the "10" circle is but 3 1/2 inches in diameter, and that the shooting was done with the regulation military rifle, 200 yards, off-hand, with six pounds trigger pull, open sights, etc., it is indeed remarkable.

Heating and Lighting Cars.

The New York State Railroad Commission has just submitted its report on the subject of heating passenger cars to the Legislature. They recommended that heating by steam be made mandatory upon all railroads in that State, and that the use of stoves be positively forbidden. They should have recommended also the abolition of the use of oil or other lamps for the illumination of the coaches. A lamp will kindle a fire as easily as a stove when a smash-up occurs. Both the stove and lamp must go.

They Are Worn by Soldiers.

Evidence of the value of Alcock's Porous Plasters comes in the following letter from Charles Yeager, of Company A, 11th U. S. Infantry, stationed at Fort Sully, Dakota:
I have been using Alcock's Porous Plasters for the last ten years, and feel quite lost if I have not half a dozen in my possession. In this section of the country we have at times very severe cold. When the thermometer is below zero, I find that an Alcock's Porous Plaster on the pit of the stomach is invaluable

They appear not only warm to the body, but to invigorate the digestion. At times I have been greatly troubled with a lame back. Two Alcock's Porous Plasters placed upon the spine invariably cure me in two or three days. Sometimes I have had a very severe cough and a very bad cold. An Alcock's Porous Plaster placed around the throat and on the chest, and one between the shoulder blades, have invariably afforded me immediate relief and a quick cure.

OVERLAND FREIGHTS.

The Southern Pacific's Through Rates.

Railroad circles in San Francisco Tuesday morning calmly and quietly settled down to business under the Inter-State Commerce law. Says the Examiner of yesterday:

It is unquestionably true that to-day a San Francisco merchant, shipping anything east and west between here and Chicago, has to pay, under the new rates, all the way from $22 to $80 per ton, and only a few articles come as low as $22. The new rate sheet from New Orleans to New York is given below. By means of it the Southern Pacific will be enabled to give a rate from here to New York, or vice versa, at all the way from 1 to 13 cents less per 100 pounds than can be made via St. Louis or Chicago. For this reason a howl of rage has gone up from the local representatives of the other transcontinental lines. Huntington's road is charged with bad faith in making its water rates from New Orleans to New York lower in a great many cases than the trunk line rates east from Chicago and St. Louis.

Between San Francisco east and west to New Orleans the rates are as follows, subject to the Western classification of goods:

1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	5th.
$4 50	$3 85	$3 20	$2 45	$2 35
A.	B.	C.	D.	E.

Between New Orleans and New York, east and west, the rates are based on the Trunk Line classification of goods, and are as follows:

1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	5th.	6th.
70	60	50	40	30	25

On this schedule the Southern Pacific was making a rate yesterday on wool to New York at $3 70 per 100 pounds, while by the St. Louis or Chicago routes wool cannot at present be carried from here to New York at less than $3 83 per 100 pounds, which makes a difference of $50 on every carload. The Southern Pacific holds this advantage because its freight is carried from New Orleans to New York by water. For this reason it holds the advantage ground over its competitors under the new law. The rate from here to New Orleans is the same as from here to St. Louis, and if, as a railroad official said yesterday, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe tries to get even by reducing rates to St. Louis on through shipments, the Southern Pacific would reduce the New Orleans tariff and still maintain the same advantage.

An Accident.

About half-past 8 o'clock this morning, Mr. E. Dunning, while on a load of hay at his place a mile east of town, assisting in binding it securely to the wagon, was, by the slipping of a hook, knocked to the ground with considerable force. For a time he was insensible, and it was feared he was injured internally. Dr. Bergstein was called and rendered medical aid. He found that no bones were broken, but the shock the injured man received was severe, and being over 60 years of age, it is hard to tell how it will result. He was brought to his home in town, and this afternoon was reported to be suffering considerable pain.

Reported Ore Strike.

George S. Smith, one of the owners of the Smith mine in Pleasant Valley, Washoe county, near Steamboat Springs, informed the Virginia Chronicle that a vein was cut last Tuesday night, in running a crosscut from the tunnel line, carrying ore that assays from $70 to $80 per ton in gold. The crosscut had been driven two feet and a half into the vein when the night shift came off, and the face was still in ore. The point where the ore was entered is about 100 feet below the surface croppings, and is supposed to be the point where several ore stringers concentrate that were followed in driving the main tunnel.

Still They Come.

D. C. Simmons, who came to Reno recently from Fowlerville, Livingston county, Mich., has just purchased the Harris residence of seven rooms on Bialston street, near Fifth. It is a very pretty place, the house being of modern design and hard finished throughout, and the lot 100x140 feet. It was a cash transaction, and consequently Mr. Simmons, who is father-in-law of John Green, of Reno, got a bargain.

Eight carloads of beefs, consigned to Messrs. Horn & Chapman, San Francisco, left here last night. At the same time nine carloads for Grayson, Owen & Co., Oakland stockyards, were sent out. The price of beef is declining, the highest offered being 7 1/2 and 8 cents.

Misses Kate Hodgkinson, Annie Martin, Fanny Dorsey, Clara Wasson and Mamie Davis, Carson school teachers, and associates of the late Miss Grace Dowdell, were in town last evening to look for the last time on the face of their deceased friend.

White Pine's Court House.

Judge Fitzgerald, in the District Court at Eureka, rendered a decision Monday morning in the White Pine county bond injunction case. The case was brought by J. B. Mathewson, a tax payer, to restrain the County Commissioners of White Pine county from issuing bonds to pay for building a Court-house and County Hospital at Ely, as directed by an Act of the last Legislature. The case was heard on a motion to dissolve the injunction and a demurrer to the complaint. Many legal questions were involved, says the Sentinel, and a large number of authorities were cited and examined. At an early hour Monday the Judge rendered his decision, sustaining the demurrer, dissolving the injunction, and giving the defendants judgment for their costs. The Court met early on the morning mentioned so that the decision could be announced in time to have the result sent by stage to the Commissioners, who met at Hamilton that afternoon, and who, no doubt immediately upon receipt of the decision, issued the bonds, and the building of the new county buildings at Ely will be proceeded with at once. It is probable an appeal will be taken.

The McGibney Family.

Of the McGibney Family that will appear at the Nevada Theater to-morrow evening, the Virginia Chronicle of last evening says: "The vocal and instrumental concert given at the Opera House last evening by the McGibney Family, drew a large audience and proved a pleasing entertainment. The opening overture by the family band and the wedding march from Mendelssohn were the gems of the concert. The violin solos played by Mr. Hugh and Miss Viola were deservedly encored. The character sketch by two juvenile members of the family was very amusing, and the little miss brought down the house with her by-play, which was far more natural and artless than that of actresses of maturer years."

Rehearsed by a Train.

Chris Bachtold writes from Salern, California, says the Winne-mucca Silver State, that George H. Oswald, who some years ago ran on the Humboldt Division of the C. P. R. R., was killed by the cars at Goshen, on the S. P. R. R., last week. He jumped on the train, on which he was a brakeman, to go into the telegraph office to get orders. As he jumped he struck a freight truck and fell back under the moving train, the wheels passing over his neck, completely severing the head from the body. He was buried at Tulare by the Knights of Pythias, of which Order he was a member.

A Shooting Match.

The Carson Tribune of the 8th instant says: The members of the Carson Guard shooting team have a match on their hands for Sunday next. It is with a team selected from the crack military companies of Springfield, Massachusetts, 15 men, 10 shots each, at the 200-yard range. Our boys have a hard contest, and must do their best. Each team shoots at the home range, and the result will be telegraphed.

The Great Seal of England.

The mere holding of the great seal of England entitles the fortunate owner to some $60,000 a year, to immense patronage in church and State, to be speaker in the house of lords, a privy councillor, and the head of all judicial authority in the kingdom, to be designated lord high chancellor of Great Britain, and keeper of the royal conscience, and to rank (next the royal family) the second subject in the realm. It is very difficult, if not impossible, to say when England first had a great seal. Seals were not much used by our Anglo-Saxon ancestors, but came largely into fashion during the Norman reigns. The gilt roses, or marks of Edward the Confessor and other Saxon kings, can scarcely be called seals, and partook more of the character of signatures of an illiterate age; but a grand and perfect seal of William the Conqueror exists, having the monarch crowned and throned on the one side, and mounted on horseback on the other—attitudes which have been invariably observed to the present day. One remarkable circumstance connected with the great seal is its progressive growth in size as time advanced. Originally, 800 years since, not larger than the top of an ordinary modern teacup, it has been gradually enlarged from age to age, till it offers now the size and appearance of a muffin, and requires to be inclosed in a tin box for protection. Indeed, so cumbersome and unwieldy had the great seal become, that some three or four years since, an act of parliament passed—containing very extraordinary provisions—directing that all the minor, and many, even, of the more important documents passed under it, should for the future be authenticated by a paper wafer of moderate size, which should be gummed on the instrument, and be deemed and taken to be the great seal itself.

The great seal has only three times been lost—twice temporarily and once permanently. James II. on leaving the kingdom on his abdication, threw the seal into the Thames, whence, however, it was next morning fished up and brought to Whitehall. Lord Eldon buried it in his garden in Queen Square, during one night when his house caught fire, and he thought in the confusion it might be stolen. "And," writes the chancellor in his diary, "when the fire was extinguished, I quite forgot in the morning where I had buried it, and while the carriage waited to take me to court, my lady and I, and all the household, were digging with pieces of stick till we luckily found it." Lord Thurlow, who always held it during the night in his bedroom, had it actually carried off by burglars, from whom it was never recovered. A privy council was called the next day, a new seal was rapidly made, and during the remainder of his continuance in office, Lord Thurlow invariably deposited it of a night under his pillow.

Down to 1818 the great seal itself was made of copper; since then silver has been the metal employed. It is in two halves, somewhat like two very thick, bright tin saucepan lids fitting closely together, their inner surfaces deeply sculptured with the royal devices intended to be formed on the wax when squeezed between them. Instruments having a limited duration are sealed with yellow wax. Others, supposed to exist in perpetuity, such as patents of peerage, etc., are exemplified under green wax, and in the case of some letter patents, likely to be exposed to a great deal of knocking about or journeying from place to place, such as were the assize commissions, the wax seal was stamped after being ingeniously inclosed in cream-colored leather. [New York Observer.]

JUST I TROUGHT OF IT.

"Say, Hanner," he called out as he came in an hour late, and with very unsteady steps, "they say that coal has advanced two shillings a ton."

"No!"

"Solemn fact, Hanner. It's perfectly awful how our poor folks are being ground down by the monopolists."

Two hours later he was aroused from sleep by the wife pulling his hair, and as he roused up she exclaimed:—

"You drunken old villain! but it's just struck me that we burn wood and don't want no coal. Get up, here, and explain your conduct in being out until eleven o'clock."

SOMETHING NEW.

More than two-thirds of the Expense of putting up and Feeding Hay Saved by CLIMAX RAKE, CLIMAX LOADER, CLIMAX STACKER, CLIMAX HAY RACK, with attachments for unloading into feed racks.

FOR HANDLING HAY OR GRAIN, the Climax Machines excel all others by great odds. Each and all of these inventions are warranted to do all claimed for them. They are no experiment, but HAVE BEEN TRIED AND TESTED by the normal work of hundreds, and received the unequalled endorsement of all.

This is to certify that last season we used the Climax Stackers in putting up 1,000 tons of hay, mostly blue joint; that it did its work well, and in my estimation is not equalled by any stacker or hay-lifting appliance on this coast.
